since 2009

October 7, 2023 12pm – 5pm
Horry County Recreation Center in Carolina Forest

Carolina Forest Day has been created to celebrate a growing community that is becoming one of the best places to live in the entire country. The growth in this community has been spectacular and it is time to show off exactly what this community has to offer. Carolina Forest Day will culminate with the start of the “Ghost of the Coast” 5K Run. Our goal is to make this an outstanding event for both businesses and resident attendees.

Featuring:

The Carolina Forest Business Expo (12–4pm)
The Horry County Services Pavilion (12–4pm)
The Fall Arts and Crafts Exhibition
Live Musical Entertainment
Food & Drinks
Bouncy Rides
Trunk or Treat
Contests and Giveaways

How to Participate

This event is designed to draw a large audience, allowing your business to directly introduce your products and services to local residents.

Apply to participate in the Business Expo, Arts & Crafts Exhibition, or as a Food Vendor today.

Applications received before August 31st receive a special discount.

Put your Business on the Map with our Passport Program

The Carolina Forest Business Expo and the Fall Arts and Crafts Exhibition each will include a Passport Program to support walk-through to your businesses. Attendees who complete their passport by visiting vendors may enter a prize drawing.

Extreme weather cancellation date: November 4th

Carolina Forest Civic Association is a non-profit 501-C-4 organization that educates and represents Carolina Forest residents on issues that are important to them. We are a voice for residents and businesses throughout all levels of government, ensuring our community's voices are heard and that issues important to us are recognized by our legislators. Supporting the CFCA is a great way to connect your business to the well-being of the community you serve. Please join us in making Carolina Forest a wonderful place to live and work!

Join us at Carolina Forest Day and Be Recognized!

The Carolina Forest Civic Association (CFCA) is inviting your business to participate as a vendor supporting this special event. If you sign up before August 31st, we are providing significant savings as appreciating for you supporting us upfront to make this event a success.

We hope you consider joining CFCA as a business member if you have not already!
